

INHABITIVENESS

Meaning: Inhabitiveness refers to the quality or characteristic of being populated or inhabited, particularly in relation to the presence and diversity of living organisms in a specific area.

1. The inhabitiveness of the region is evident in the diverse species that thrive here.
2. Researchers studied the inhabitiveness of urban areas to understand how wildlife adapts to city life.
3. Her passion for sustainability was reflected in her focus on the inhabitiveness of various ecosystems.
4. The inhabitiveness of the abandoned building attracted a variety of birds and small mammals.
5. Efforts to improve the inhabitiveness of the park included planting native flora and creating habitats.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inhabitiveness>