

INHARMONIOUSLY

Meaning: Inharmoniously means in a manner that is discordant or lacking harmony, often resulting in an unpleasant or tense atmosphere.

1. The choir sang inharmoniously, creating an unsettling atmosphere in the church.
2. Their arguments often ended inharmoniously, leaving a lingering tension in the room.
3. The colors of the painting clashed and were arranged inharmoniously, making it difficult to appreciate.
4. The band played their instruments inharmoniously, resulting in a cacophony that drove the audience away.
5. Despite their best efforts, the dancers moved inharmoniously, disrupting the flow of the performance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inharmoniously>