

INHARMONY

Meaning: Inharmoniously refers to a state of discord or lack of agreement, resulting in a disjointed or uncoordinated manner.

1. The community lived in harmony for years, but recent events have revealed underlying tensions that now exist inharmoniously.
2. The orchestra struggled to perform well, as the musicians played inharmoniously, each following their own tempo.
3. Inharmoniously, the differing opinions of the group members led to heated debates that disrupted the meeting.
4. Their relationship was marked by love and conflict, often alternating between moments of joy and times spent inharmoniously.
5. The colors in the painting clashed inharmoniously, failing to create the serene atmosphere the artist had envisioned.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inharmony>