

INHOOP

Meaning: Inhoop (verb): To encircle or incorporate elements or ideas into a cohesive whole.

1. The artist decided to inhoop the vibrant colors of nature in her latest painting.
2. As the group began to inhoop their ideas, creativity flowed freely among them.
3. To truly capture the essence of the moment, he needed to inhoop all his thoughts into a single narrative.
4. Inhooping the various elements of the story helped the writer create a cohesive plot.
5. She found it challenging to inhoop her emotions into words, but she persevered.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inhoop>