

INJECT

Meaning: To introduce a substance into something else, typically using a syringe or similar device.

1. The doctor will inject the vaccine into your arm to protect against the flu.
2. The mechanic needs to inject new oil into the engine to ensure it runs smoothly.
3. She decided to inject some humor into her speech to lighten the mood.
4. The chef will inject the chicken with a marinade to enhance its flavor.
5. During the experiment, they used a syringe to inject the solution into the test tube.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inject>