

INJOIN

Meaning: To injoin means to join together or to legally prohibit or restrain an action.

1. We decided to injoin our efforts to achieve a common goal.
2. The lawyer sought to injoin the publication of the sensitive information.
3. They hoped to injoin any further actions until the investigation was complete.
4. The court will determine whether to injoin the contract's enforcement.
5. It's crucial to injoin these practices to ensure safety and compliance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/injoin>