

INJUDICIOUSLY

Meaning: INJUDICIOUSLY: in a manner that shows a lack of good judgment or wisdom; imprudently.

1. She acted injudiciously by investing all her savings in a volatile stock.
2. The committee's decision to cut funding injudiciously jeopardized the entire project.
3. He spoke injudiciously during the meeting, undermining his credibility among colleagues.
4. Injudiciously handled, the sensitive information could lead to serious repercussions.
5. Their injudiciously planned expedition ended in disaster due to lack of preparation.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/injudiciously>