

INKING

Meaning: INKING: The process of applying ink to a surface, often used in art to enhance or finalize drawings and designs.

1. The artist spent hours inking the intricate designs on the canvas.
2. After inking the final line, she stepped back to admire her work.
3. He was known for inking his thoughts directly into his journal every morning.
4. The tattoo artist was skilled at inking vibrant colors that brought the designs to life.
5. Inking a new contract with the publisher was a significant milestone for the author.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inking>