

INKLING

Meaning: INKLING: a slight, vague idea or suspicion about something.

1. She had an inkling that something was wrong when he didn't show up.
2. After reading the first chapter, I got an inkling of what the plot would be about.
3. His casual remark gave me an inkling of his true feelings about the situation.
4. I didn't have a solid plan, but I had an inkling of how to proceed.
5. She followed her inkling and decided to take the alternate route home.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inkling>