

INLAW

Meaning: INLAW: A relative by marriage, such as a sibling's spouse (sister-in-law) or a parent's spouse (father-in-law).

1. My sister-in-law is hosting a family dinner this weekend.
2. It's always interesting to hear stories from my father-in-law about his youth.
3. We decided to invite our in-laws to celebrate our anniversary together.
4. Her mother-in-law is known for her exceptional cooking skills.
5. Meeting my future in-laws made me a bit nervous, but they were very welcoming.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inlaw>