

INNAVIGABLE

Meaning: Innavigable refers to a body of water that is impossible to navigate due to obstacles or hazardous conditions.

1. The river became innavigable after the storm deposited a massive amount of debris.
2. Despite their best efforts, the sailors found the choppy waters innavigable and had to turn back.
3. The vast expanse of the desert was considered innavigable, with shifting sands obscuring any potential paths.
4. His lack of experience made the once-familiar terrain feel innavigable in the dense fog.
5. The local authorities declared the bridge innavigable due to structural damage, ensuring public safety.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/innavigable>