

INNERVE

Meaning: In nerve (verb): to instill courage or energy in someone, often leading to decisive action.

1. The sudden news seemed to innervate her with a surge of energy.
2. His fear did not innervate him; instead, it pushed him to act decisively.
3. In moments of crisis, it's important to innervate those around you with confidence.
4. The bright colors of the painting seemed to innervate the entire room.
5. She found that music could innervate her spirit and lift her mood instantly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/innervate>