

INNOVATIONIST

Meaning: An innovationist is a person who actively pursues creative solutions to enhance and improve existing systems or processes.

1. An innovationist is someone who actively seeks to improve existing systems through creative solutions.
2. The company hired an innovationist to lead its research and development team.
3. Her reputation as an innovationist is built on her groundbreaking work in renewable energy technology.
4. In today's fast-paced world, being an innovationist is essential for staying competitive in any industry.
5. The conference featured several keynote speakers who identified themselves as innovationists in their respective fields.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/innovationist>