

INNOXIOUS

Meaning: Innocuous: not harmful or offensive; safe for use or consumption.

1. The scientist assured the community that the newly developed chemical was entirely innoxious.
2. Despite its bitter taste, the plant was deemed innoxious and safe for consumption.
3. The innoxious nature of the cleaning product made it a favorite among environmentally conscious consumers.
4. She preferred to use innoxious materials in her art to ensure the safety of her young children.
5. The debate over the pesticide's safety ended when studies confirmed it was innoxious to humans and wildlife.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/innnoxious>