

INOCULATION

Meaning: Inoculation is the process of introducing a vaccine into the body to stimulate immunity against a specific disease.

1. The inoculation against the flu has been shown to reduce illness rates significantly.
2. Many parents are hesitant about the inoculation schedules recommended for their children.
3. Recent studies highlight the importance of inoculation in preventing the spread of infectious diseases.
4. Following the inoculation, the patient experienced mild side effects that were expected.
5. Public health campaigns emphasize the need for widespread inoculation to achieve herd immunity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inoculation>