

INOPERATION

Meaning: Inoperation refers to a state of being inactive or not functioning, often due to external circumstances or interruptions.

1. The company's machinery fell into a state of inoperation after the recent power outage.
2. His frequent absences led to a significant period of inoperation in the project timeline.
3. The inoperation of the system was attributed to outdated software that needed an upgrade.
4. Despite its initial success, the program faced inoperation due to lack of funding and support.
5. The inoperation of the public transit system during the strike left many commuters stranded.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inoperation>