

INOPPORTUNE

Meaning: Inopportune: occurring at an inconvenient or inappropriate time.

1. His decision to propose during the family reunion felt inopportune given the recent tensions.
2. The stormy weather made our outdoor wedding plans seem particularly inopportune.
3. She chose an inopportune moment to discuss her promotion, right in the middle of a team crisis.
4. It was an inopportune time for him to bring up his vacation plans while they were under pressure to meet a deadline.
5. The inopportune arrival of the delivery disrupted our important meeting.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inopportune>