

INORGANIZATION

Meaning: Inorganization refers to a lack of structured organization or systematic arrangement within a group or system, often resulting in confusion and inefficiency.

1. The research team focused on the effects of inorganization within large corporations.
2. Inorganization can lead to confusion and decreased productivity among employees.
3. The consultant provided strategies to combat inorganization in the firm's structure.
4. Her frustration grew as she navigated the inorganization of the project's details.
5. Effective leadership is essential to minimize inorganization in any organization.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inorganization>