

INQUINATION

Meaning: Inquination refers to the contamination or pollution of a substance, particularly water or food, that poses health risks.

1. The inquination of the water supply raised serious health concerns among the community.
2. In ancient times, the inquination of food sources often led to widespread illness.
3. Scientists are studying the effects of inquination on local ecosystems.
4. The government implemented strict regulations to prevent the inquination of natural resources.
5. Public awareness campaigns were launched to educate citizens about the dangers of inquination.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inquination>