

INRUSH

Meaning: INRUSH: a sudden and large movement or influx of a substance or people into a particular area.

1. The sudden inrush of water from the broken dam caused widespread flooding in the area.
2. As the concert began, an inrush of excited fans surged toward the stage.
3. The inrush of new ideas during the brainstorming session revitalized the team's project.
4. After the announcement, there was an inrush of applicants eager to join the prestigious program.
5. During the storm, the inrush of wind rattled the windows and shook the doors.
6. The sudden inrush of cold air made everyone shiver.
7. During the storm, there was an inrush of water into the basement.
8. The crowd's excited inrush filled the stadium as the concert began.
9. An inrush of new ideas can often lead to innovative solutions.
10. She felt a strong inrush of emotion as she read the heartfelt letter.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inrush>