

INSCRIBABLE

Meaning: Inscribable refers to the capability of a geometric shape or design to be perfectly contained within another shape, such as a circle or square.

1. The mathematician explored whether certain geometric shapes were inscribable within a circle.
2. In her art class, she demonstrated how to create inscribable designs that fit perfectly within a square.
3. The ancient text discussed the conditions under which polygons could be considered inscribable.
4. They found that the triangle was inscribable in a circle, leading to interesting implications in their study.
5. During the lecture, the professor explained the concept of inscribable figures using practical examples.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inscribable>