

INSCRIPTIVE

Meaning: Inscriptive: relating to or characterized by the act of inscribing or engraving, particularly in a way that conveys information or meaning.

1. The inscriptive nature of the ancient artifact revealed secrets about the civilization's history.
2. Her inscriptive skills made her an invaluable asset during the archaeological dig.
3. The artist's inscriptive style added depth and meaning to the otherwise simple design.
4. As she studied the inscriptive markings, she felt a connection to the past that was almost palpable.
5. The inscriptive elements on the monument served as a reminder of the values held by its creators.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inscriptive>