

INSCULP

Meaning: Insculp (verb): To carve or engrave designs or figures into a hard material, such as stone.

1. The artist chose to insculp the intricate details of the dragon into the stone.
2. In ancient times, craftsmen would insculp their creations with symbols of power and protection.
3. The museum displayed a remarkable sculpture that seemed to insculp the very essence of movement.
4. To insculp the story of her life, she etched her experiences into the soft clay.
5. His desire to insculp a legacy led him to create art that reflected his deepest values.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/insculp>