

INSENSIBILITY

Meaning: Insensibility refers to a lack of awareness or concern for the feelings and suffering of others.

1. Her insensibility to the suffering of others was shocking to those around her.
2. Despite the tragedy unfolding before him, he maintained an air of insensibility that bewildered his friends.
3. The insensibility of the policy resulted in increased hardships for the most vulnerable members of society.
4. In moments of crisis, his insensibility often shielded him from the overwhelming emotions that would otherwise consume him.
5. The insensibility to pain she displayed during the marathon left everyone in awe of her determination.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/insensibility>