

INSENSIBLE

Meaning: Insensible: lacking physical sensation or awareness; unresponsive or indifferent to stimuli or external conditions.

1. The patient lay insensible after the accident, unresponsive to any stimuli.
2. Despite the cold weather, he remained insensible to the discomfort, focused solely on his task.
3. Her insensible reaction to the heartbreaking news left her friends in shock.
4. The insensible comments made during the meeting revealed a lack of understanding of the issues at hand.
5. After hours of debate, it became clear that his insensible attitude was hindering progress.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/insensible>