

INSENTIENT

Meaning: Insentient refers to being devoid of sensation, consciousness, or awareness; lacking the ability to feel or perceive.

1. The insentient rock lay still beneath the relentless sun.
2. Despite its insentient nature, the statue seemed to convey deep emotions to the onlookers.
3. Many argue that technology is becoming increasingly insentient, lacking true understanding and awareness.
4. The insentient machinery hummed softly in the background as the workers carried on with their tasks.
5. In her poem, she contrasted the vibrant life of the garden with the insentient concrete of the city.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/insentient>