

INSOCIABLE

Meaning: Insociable: unwilling or unable to engage in social interactions; shy or reserved.

1. Her insociable nature made it difficult for her to connect with her peers at the new school.
2. Despite his insociable demeanor, he had a wealth of knowledge that fascinated those who took the time to engage with him.
3. The insociable dog would shy away from visitors, preferring the solitude of its favorite corner.
4. Many found her insociable tendencies endearing, as they often led to deep and meaningful conversations with those she did trust.
5. He was known as the insociable artist, often spending long hours alone in his studio, creating masterpieces.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/insociable>