

INSOLENT

Meaning: Insolent: showing a rude and arrogant lack of respect.

1. The student's insolent behavior during the lecture surprised the professor.
2. Despite the warnings, he continued to make insolent remarks about his boss.
3. Her insolent attitude towards authority figures often landed her in trouble.
4. The insolent tone in his voice made it clear he had no respect for the rules.
5. She raised an insolent eyebrow when asked to follow the guidelines.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/insolent>