

INSOLUBLENESS

Meaning: Insolubleness refers to the quality or state of being unable to dissolve in a particular solvent.

1. The insolubleness of the mineral in water made it a challenge for researchers to study its properties.
2. Despite numerous attempts, the scientist faced the unfortunate truth of the compound's insolubleness in organic solvents.
3. The insolubleness of the substance in acid led to a reevaluation of the experiment's methodology.
4. Her frustration grew as she encountered the insolubleness of the complex, preventing any further analysis.
5. Understanding the insolubleness of certain pollutants is crucial for developing effective environmental cleanup strategies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/insolubleness>