INSPISSATION

Meaning: Inspissation is the process of thickening or concentrating a liquid substance, often through evaporation.

1. The chemist was fascinated by the inspissation of the syrup as it simmered gently on the stove.

2. Inspissation of the paint allowed for a richer color and a more textured finish on the canvas.

3. The inspissation process in the laboratory required careful monitoring of temperature and pressure.

4. As the mixture underwent inspissation, its viscosity increased, making it more suitable for the application.

5. The chef described the inspissation of the sauce as essential to achieving the desired depth of flavor.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inspissation