

INSTABLNESS

Meaning: Instableness refers to a state of instability or lack of stability, characterized by unpredictability and frequent change.

1. The instableness of the political situation made it difficult for businesses to plan for the future.
2. Her emotional instableness often led to impulsive decisions that she later regretted.
3. The instableness of the economy prompted many investors to seek safer assets.
4. In the face of climate change, the instableness of weather patterns has become increasingly concerning.
5. His instableness in relationships made it hard for him to maintain long-lasting connections.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/instableness>