

INSTINCT

Meaning: Instinct is an innate, typically fixed pattern of behavior or response that is present in animals and humans, often guiding actions without the need for conscious thought.

1. Her maternal instinct kicked in the moment she held her newborn baby.
2. Animals often rely on instinct to survive in the wild.
3. Despite the logic of his plan, he chose to follow his instinct instead.
4. The athlete's instinct for the game set him apart from his competitors.
5. She had an instinctive understanding of the emotions of those around her.
6. Her maternal instinct kicked in the moment she heard her baby cry.
7. He relied on his instinct to navigate the unfamiliar city streets.
8. Animals often act on instinct, using their senses to survive in the wild.
9. Despite the warnings, her instinct told her that it was safe to proceed.
10. The athlete's instinct for the game was evident in his quick decision-making on the field.
11. Her instinct told her that something was wrong, even before she had any proof.
12. The mother cat carefully guided her kittens with the instincts of a protective parent.
13. He relied on his instinct to navigate the unfamiliar city, trusting his gut over maps.
14. Despite the risks, her instinct urged her to take the leap and follow her dreams.
15. Animals often rely on instinct for survival, using their senses to detect danger.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/instinct>