

INSTINCTION

Meaning: Instinct: a natural or intuitive way of acting or thinking that guides behavior, often without conscious reasoning.

1. The bird's instinct to migrate south for the winter is remarkable.
2. Even in unfamiliar situations, her instinct often guided her towards the right choice.
3. The child had a natural instinct for understanding the emotions of others.
4. Survival instinct kicked in when he found himself in a dangerous situation.
5. His artistic instinct allowed him to create stunning pieces that resonated with many.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/instinction>