

INSTINCTIVELY

Meaning: INSTINCTIVELY: in a manner that is driven by innate impulses or natural tendencies, without conscious thought.

1. She instinctively reached out to catch the falling glass before it shattered.
2. The dog instinctively barked at the stranger approaching the house.
3. He instinctively knew that something was wrong as soon as he walked into the room.
4. Despite her training, she instinctively flinched at the sudden loud noise.
5. The athlete instinctively adjusted his stance when he noticed the opponent's movements.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/instinctively>