

INSTRUCTIBLE

Meaning: Instructible: capable of being taught or guided; receptive to instruction.

1. The artist's vision was so clear that her style felt almost instructible to her students.
2. Despite his attempts to teach the complex dance moves, his partner remained instructible and struggled to keep up.
3. The software was designed to be user-friendly, making it instructible even for those with no prior experience.
4. Her passion for the subject made the material seem instructible, captivating the attention of all her peers.
5. While the rules were complicated, the coach found a way to make the strategy instructible for the entire team.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/instructible>