

INSTRUMENTALIST

Meaning: An instrumentalist is a musician who plays a musical instrument, often with a high level of skill.

1. The instrumentalist skillfully played the violin, captivating the audience with each note.
2. In her band, she was not just a vocalist but also an exceptional instrumentalist.
3. Many famous instrumentalists started their careers by performing at local coffee shops.
4. The festival featured a renowned instrumentalist who specialized in jazz guitar.
5. He admired the way the instrumentalist could convey emotion through every performance.
6. The instrumentalist captivated the audience with an exquisite performance of classical melodies.
7. She aspired to become a renowned instrumentalist, mastering multiple instruments along the way.
8. In the jazz ensemble, the instrumentalist's improvisation added a unique flavor to each piece.
9. His skill as an instrumentalist allowed him to collaborate effortlessly with various musicians.
10. The festival featured a diverse lineup of talented instrumentalists from around the world.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/instrumentalist>