

INSTRUMENTATION

Meaning: Instrumentation refers to the collection of tools and devices used for measuring, monitoring, and controlling physical quantities in scientific and engineering applications.

1. The instrumentation used in the laboratory was essential for accurate measurements.
2. Engineers rely on specialized instrumentation to monitor the performance of complex systems.
3. Advancements in instrumentation technology have greatly improved data collection in various fields.
4. Proper calibration of instrumentation is crucial to ensure reliable results in scientific experiments.
5. She studied instrumentation to better understand the tools used in environmental monitoring.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/instrumentation>