

INSUBMISSION

Meaning: Insubmission refers to a refusal to submit or comply with authority or established rules.

1. Her insubmission during the meeting was surprising given her usual compliance.
2. The team faced challenges due to his insubmission to the new policies.
3. Insubmission in the face of authority can sometimes lead to unexpected change.
4. The insubmission of the workers sparked a movement for better conditions.
5. Despite the risks, her insubmission was a bold statement against the status quo.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/insubmission>