

INSULATOR

Meaning: An insulator is a material that resists the flow of electricity or heat, thereby enhancing safety and energy efficiency in various applications.

1. An insulator prevents the flow of electricity, making it essential for safe electrical systems.
2. The roof is lined with an insulator to keep the house warm during winter.
3. In modern electronics, silicon serves as a crucial insulator in various devices.
4. The scientist explained how the insulator can influence the performance of a capacitor.
5. Fiberglass is commonly used as an insulator in both residential and commercial buildings.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/insulator>