

INSULTABLE

Meaning: Insultable: capable of being unaffected by insults or criticism; resilient to negative remarks.

1. His unyielding confidence made him seemingly insultable, allowing him to brush off criticisms effortlessly.
2. In a world filled with harsh judgments, she prided herself on being insultable, rarely letting negativity affect her spirit.
3. Despite the harsh words thrown at him, his insultable demeanor turned the situation into a joke rather than a fight.
4. Some people possess an insultable nature, enabling them to rise above petty remarks and focus on their goals.
5. Her insultable attitude was both admirable and puzzling to those who found themselves easily offended.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/insultable>