

INSULTATION

Meaning: Insultation refers to the act of expressing contempt or disdain, often through derogatory remarks or insults.

1. The artist's latest work received both praise and insultation from critics, highlighting the division in public opinion.
2. During the debate, the candidate's use of insultation rather than facts backfired and alienated potential voters.
3. It's troubling to see how insultation has become a common response in online discussions instead of constructive dialogue.
4. The novel cleverly satirizes the culture of insultation that permeates social media interactions.
5. In a moment of frustration, she resorted to insultation, forgetting the value of a respectful conversation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/insultation>