INSULTMENT

Meaning: Insultment refers to the act or instance of insulting someone, often intended to demean or belittle them, particularly in social interactions.

1. The concept of insultment has become more prominent in discussions about social media interactions.

2. Her comments were seen as a deliberate insultment aimed at undermining his confidence.

3. In a world so focused on kindness, we must find ways to combat the rise of insultment.

4. The author's satirical take on insultment resonated with readers who have experienced similar situations.

5. He was taken aback by the unexpected insultment from someone he considered a friend.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/insultment