

INTEGRATING

Meaning: Integrating refers to the process of combining or incorporating different elements or systems to create a unified whole.

1. Integrating new technologies into the classroom can enhance student engagement.
2. The company is focusing on integrating diverse perspectives to foster innovation.
3. She is integrating her personal values with her professional goals to create a fulfilling career.
4. The project involves integrating various data sources to improve decision-making processes.
5. By integrating feedback from customers, the team was able to refine their product offerings.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/integrating>