

INTELLECTUAL

Meaning: INTELLECTUAL (adjective): Relating to the use of the intellect or involving deep thinking and reasoning, often in the context of scholarly or complex discussions.

1. The intellectual debate sparked a lively discussion among the participants.
2. She found solace in the pages of books filled with intellectual discourse.
3. His intellectual curiosity drove him to explore various fields of science and philosophy.
4. The seminar attracted many intellectuals who were eager to share their insights.
5. Art can serve as an intellectual challenge, prompting viewers to think critically about society.
6. She has always been known for her exceptional intellectual curiosity.
7. The debate showcased a range of intellectual perspectives on the topic.
8. His intellectual contributions to the field were recognized with a prestigious award.
9. They formed an intellectual partnership that led to groundbreaking research.
10. The book offers an intellectual exploration of the complexities of human nature.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/intellectual>