

INTEMPERAMENT

Meaning: Intemperament refers to a lack of moderation or restraint, resulting in extreme behavior or conditions.

1. His intemperament often led to explosive arguments that left everyone around him uneasy.
2. The intemperament of the weather made planning the outdoor event nearly impossible.
3. She struggled to manage her intemperament, frequently overreacting to minor setbacks.
4. The artist's works were a reflection of his intemperament, filled with chaotic emotion and vibrant colors.
5. Despite his charm, his intemperament revealed a troubling volatility that concerned his friends.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/intemperament>