

INTEMPERANT

Meaning: Intemperant: characterized by a lack of moderation or restraint, especially in behavior or consumption.

1. His intemperant behavior during the meeting left everyone shocked and uncomfortable.
2. The wine flowed freely at the celebration, leading to an intemperant atmosphere that few could control.
3. She regretted her intemperant remarks, realizing they had offended many of her friends.
4. Intemperant spending often leads to financial troubles that can take years to resolve.
5. Despite his many accomplishments, his intemperant habits overshadowed his successes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/intemperant>