

INTERCEPT

Meaning: To intercept means to stop or seize something while it is on its way from one place to another.

1. The police were able to intercept the stolen vehicle before it crossed state lines.
2. During the game, the cornerback made a stunning leap to intercept the pass intended for the wide receiver.
3. Satellite technology allows us to intercept signals that can provide crucial data for climate research.
4. The delivery drone was rerouted to intercept the package that was mistakenly sent to the wrong address.
5. To improve security, the software is designed to intercept potentially harmful emails before they reach the inbox.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/intercept>