

INTERCEPTION

Meaning: INTERCEPTION: The act of seizing or taking possession of something, often communications or passes, before it reaches its intended target.

1. The quarterback's interception changed the momentum of the game.
2. The security team executed a successful interception of the suspect's communications.
3. Her quick thinking led to the interception of the email before it reached the wrong hands.
4. The interception of the message revealed critical information about the enemy's plans.
5. During the match, his skillful interception led to a swift counterattack by his team.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/interception>