

INTERCEPTIVE

Meaning: INTERCEPTIVE (adjective): relating to actions or skills that involve stopping or seizing something before it reaches its intended target or outcome.

1. The interceptive measures taken by the security team proved effective in preventing any unauthorized access.
2. Her interceptive skills in the game allowed her to anticipate the opponent's moves with remarkable accuracy.
3. The interceptive actions of the police led to the apprehension of the suspects before they could escape.
4. During the training session, the coach emphasized the importance of having interceptive strategies to outmaneuver the rival team.
5. The interceptive technology utilized by the software significantly enhanced its ability to detect potential threats.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/interceptive>