

INTERCIPIENT

Meaning: Intercipient: a person or entity that mediates or intervenes in a process or interaction, particularly in negotiations or communication.

1. The intercipient acts as a crucial mediator in the negotiation process.
2. In the study of linguistics, the intercipient role can significantly influence language acquisition.
3. Her intercipient nature allowed her to bridge gaps between conflicting viewpoints.
4. The intercipient device efficiently captures and transmits data in real-time.
5. As an intercipient, he played a pivotal role in facilitating communication between the two groups.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/intercipient>